Equipment Planning

Providing a comprehensive assessment of your equipment needs

Premier's Capital and Construction Services team provides the resources and expertise for making data-driven decisions when planning for and acquiring capital medical equipment for construction projects. Our team helps you have confidence in your equipment list, purchase the right capital for your needs and purchase the capital at a favorable price, whether you're purchasing medical and surgical items or refrigerators.

The Capital and Construction Services team can support or fully manage the capital sourcing and procurement process. Our solutions can be used as an extension of your team to enhance their work, or we can manage the entire capital sourcing and procurement process. The choice is yours. We work with you to find a process that will meet any need you may have, and provide support for all capital including workout equipment and monitors, not just medical and surgical items. By leveraging Premier's robust portfolio, organizations benefit from lower costs and increased efficiency to improve patient care.
